I have been celibate for nearly four months now — my boyfriend is working in the Arabian Gulf and I haven't seen him. But he will be home soon, and when he comes to meet me at my flat I will be totally naked. I will then slowly strip him, and run my tongue all over his hard, naked body, paying particular attention to his beautiful cock and balls. Then he will do the same to me, and as he eats my pussy, I will stimulate my nipples with my fingertips, which makes me incredibly homy. Once we have both reached a peak of readiness, I will guide his stiff cock into my sopping pussy, and he will bring me to a mind-bending climax, time and time again before shooting his hot come into me. 'It will be worth having waited four months!'
